

Appendix C.2.:        Dispute Letters Under §§ 611 and 623

The following letters can be used by your clients and you to contact credit reporting agencies (CRAs), and companies that have furnished information about your client to the CRAs, to request that they reinvestigate and correct all inaccurate information resulting from identity theft that appears on your client's credit reports.

Specifically, in the following pages, you will find:

- C.2.a.        Consumer 611, 623 Dispute Letter for Credit Reporting Agencies
- C.2.b.        Attorney 611, 623 Follow-up Letter for Credit Reporting Agencies
- C.2.c.\(1\)    Consumer 611, 623 Dispute Letters for Information Furnishers - Existing Accounts
- C.2.c.\(2\)    Consumer 611, 623 Dispute Letters for Information Furnishers - New Accounts
- C.2.d.        Attorney 611, 623 Follow-up Letter for Information Furnishers